

Staring At The Sun

Vanic

I've been thinking about you more than I should Thinking somehow I misunderstood
I've been drinking about you more than I should
They said we were too young
Going back to twenty-one

'Cause you said that you can never leave me
You said you won't
We carved our names in the city
By the red payphone

You said that you would never leave me
But now you're gone
Now you're gone
Now I

I keep it locked away all days to come
The beauty of your face I come undone
'Cause it feels like staring at the sun
Feels like, feels like

(Feels like, feels like)
Staring at the sun
(Feels like, feels like)
Staring at the sun

Say you're happier now and I'm under your spell
Gotta know what you hide, you know me too well
And then you kiss me goodnight, tell me farewell
And you're standing all alone, in a minute you are gone

'Cause you said that you can never leave me
You said you won't
We carved our names in the city
By the red payphone

You said that you would never leave me
But now you're, gone
Now you're, gone
Now I

I keep it locked away all days to come
The beauty of your face I come undone
'Cause it feels like staring at the sun
Feels like, feels like

(Feels like, feels like)
Staring at the sun
(Feels like, feels like)
Staring at the sun

I've been wasting time
Way down, down that line
Every waking hour
Way down, down that line

I keep it locked away all days to come

The beauty of your face I come undone
'Cause it feels like staring at the sun

(Feels like, feels like)
Staring at the sun
