

It Ain't You

Vanilla Ninja

It was all kind of my fault
When we kissed in the rain
Reflections faded on car doors
Right here I knew
It ain't you

Dreams are killing me slowly
Thoughts fade into the blue
Hear me - hear my words left unspoken
Cos what you feel
It ain't real

Is it love?
Is it cruel?
I won't fight against you
Is it rude if I let you go
However it ain't you

I felt lost in the highlands
Without you by my side
You're still kind of a stranger
Trying to make
The stars collide

Give me moments of silence
That are endlessly loud
Cos you - you're the echo of my eyes
And make my heart
Roll the dice

Is it love?
Is it cruel?
I won't fight against you
Is it rude if I never let you go
However it ain't you

Don't lose yourself when you hold me tight
Don't think it's wrong when you know it's right
Don't paint it black when you see the light
I know cos it ain't you

Is it love?
Is it cruel?
I won't fight against you
Is it rude if I never let you go
However it ain't you

Is it love?
Is it cruel?
I won't fight against you
Is it rude if I never let you go
However it ain't you
