

The Look in Your Eyes

Vanilla Ninja

Well I can't stand the feeling
That turns my love to pain
Prevents my wounds from healing
Turns sunshine into rain

Your crazy kind affection
It shakes me to the core
I can't find satisfaction
Cos I can't close that door

I try
But I can't say goodbye
That's why:

There is that look in your eyes
Telling beautiful lies
Bout the game of win and lose
You know the dreams that I miss
Makes me long for your kiss
And your special kind of truth

Well I
Ahaaa

Well, loving you ain't easy
Like riding through a storm
It's endless self-deceiving
And mental chloroform

A bittersweet attraction
Is growing in my soul
If I can't get perfection
I love to lose control

I try
But I can't say goodbye
That's why:

There is that look in your eyes
Telling beautiful lies
Bout the game of win and lose
You know the dreams that I miss
Makes me long for your kiss
And your special kind of truth

Well I...
Ahaaa

Well I can't stand the feeling
That t made my love to pain
Prevents my wounds from healing
Turns sunshine into rain
