

Wake Up Call

Vanilla Sky

It's been a long wrong road
Now it's time to realize that
We have been sleeping for so long
We can't rely on things we know
Now it's time to dig out the truth
Whooooa they are liars
It's been a long wrong road with no destination
The change begins here with ourselves
Take your time think about it
And with your own thoughts arm yourself
Cause whooooa they are liars
Don't give up
Open your eyes
Stand up
You know they're not innocent
Yeah they're not innocent
Don't give up
Make up your mind

Stand up
Lodge a bullet in their head
A wake up call for my generation
We walked a long wrong road keeping our eyes closed
We used to justify mistakes
We faked that everything was fine
Being charmed by the things they said
But whooooa they are liars
Whooooa
We don't have to panic
Now we know what's going on
Another day is going
Another chance to see it through
No more sweet illusions
This time I see no compromise
Another day is going
Another chance is coming
