

The God Emperor

Vanir

He lives to dominate
He lives to kill
Desolation in his wake
God emperor of man
He lives to dominate
He lives to kill
Dragon of bate
Violent and cruel

Paragon of corruption
See the Murderess viper
Like a hungry wolf
Tracking down his prey

He rips the world apart
through bone and flesh
The time has come to reap
Divinity as his crest

The day turns red
As shadows decent
Heir their anguish
This is the end

Paragon of corruption
Fear his burning wrath
Torture and death awaits
For all in bis path

He rips the world apart
Through bone and flesh
The time has come to reap
Divinity as his crest

The day turns red
As shadows decend
Hear their anguish
This is the end

For I am poison that sets you free
Give yourselves on to me
I take both gold and flesh
All mine to be
Act upon my every need
Behold my divinity

The day turns red
As shadows decend
Hear their anguish
This is the end

God emperor of man
The Blight of Rome
Conqueror of sea and man
Depravity thy name
God emperor of man
The Blight of Rome

Inflicted by lunacy
As poison to the throne

Once a kind ruler, shattered into madness
