

Dead Elysium

Vanishing Point

Black is the heart to the seeds of suffering
Dark is the light that burns
Faint is the sound that makes me whole
Here in the dark of night I'm running to The distant signals that are left me to hope

Shifting sands forever, our lives are free no more

Hide away, dead Elysium
The end of days I won't believe, I'll fall away
We are the last, but not the only ones
Lost divided souls living a lie in a dead Elysium
Dead Elysium

Send me off to sleep let me drift away
Into the light that burns as the silence makes me whole
Cold are the years to the memories of my youth
Distant are the signals leading home

Shifting sands forever, our lives are free no more

Hide away, dead Elysium
The end of days I won't believe, I'll fall away
We are the last, but not the only ones
Lost divided souls living a lie in a dead Elysium

We are the last, we are the fallen
We are the dark, we welcome the light
We were the lost, we were forsaken
We were the dark, we brought back the light

Shifting sands forever, our lives are free no more

Hide away, dead Elysium
The end of days I won't believe, I'll fall away
Hide away, dead Elysium
The end of days I won't believe, I'll fall away
We are the last, but not the only ones
Lost divided souls living a lie in a dead Elysium

Dead Elysium
In a dead Elysium
In a dead Elysium
In a dead Elysium
