

The Healing

Vanishing Point

Close my eyes so I can live another day dream
There's no need for fighting a war
Open my life and colour my world

These scars will heal
Take your sorrow

Within me, within all that I am
You thought you broke it all
You thought to run from all
So weave your sorrow and leave me alone
So weave your sorrow and leave me alone
Yeah set your sorrow free and leave me alone

So long to emptiness, isolate the pain
Let me breathe
So long to empty words
Open is my life, open is my world

These scars will heal
Take your sorrow

Within me, within all that I am
You thought you broke it all
You thought to run from all
So weave your sorrow and leave me alone

So weave your sorrow and leave me alone
Yeah set your sorrow free and leave me alone
