

The Ocean

Vanishing Point

Taken away blinded and bleeding
Dying within this ocean
The words you broke had opened
The scars within me

More than a life you now have broken
Poison am I? Poisoned in lies
Fate drives an endless fire, that burns inside me

You never let me go, you never let me grow
You never let me see the other side of me
Locked inside my inner battle
Soul set free, one day I'll find my way

Tangled in fear, tangled in pain
Tangled in dream, tangled insane
Tangled in lies, I'm living your lie

Fear you held me embraced was I?
Faith you held me embraced was I?
Once I walked behind your shadow
Now I walk alone
Fear you held me embraced in lies

More than a life you have now wasted
Poisoned you are, the poison I've tasted
Now you plead forgiveness for what you are

No longer I'll evolve, I'm no longer breaking
No more can we resolve, this trust forsaken

Fear you held me embraced was I?
Faith you held me embraced was I?
Once I walked behind your shadow
Now I walk alone
Fear you held me embraced in lies
Fear you held me embraced in lies
Now I walk alone
