

Another Lover

VanJess

If you want me you would try
Not take your time, wasting time
Soon the patience's gonna dry
I'm chasin' life, faith is life

But I'm not wishing on maybes
Those don't turn into a thang
Oh yes I'm angry and in pain, but know what?
I could find a, another lover
Another lover
Another lover (lover, lover, lover)
I could find a (lover, lover, lover)
Another lover (lover, lover, lover)
I could find a (lover, lover, lover)

Got too much on my plate
Too worry 'bout them love games
Now if I look so down place
You riding up my sun rays
Got too much on my plate
Too worry 'bout them love games
Now if I look so down place
You riding up my sun rays

Have me thinking it was fun
Let go of my pride, go of my pride, hmm
I'm regretting all those times
I hit you twice, got back lies, ay

But I'm not wishing on maybes
Those don't turn into a thang (ohh)
Oh yes I'm angry and in pain, but know what?
I could find a, another lover
Another lover
Another lover (lover, lover, lover)
I could find a (lover, lover, lover)
Another lover (lover, lover, lover)
I could find a (lover, lover, lover)

Do your thing, I cannot change your ways
I'm escaping from this toxic place
Turn the page now it's a different slate
I'm hittin' my zone, blowing my box, know where we come from, come to my [?]
