

Caught Up

VanJess

Heavy breathing
As I'm sinking
Know what it means
In too deep and
Suffocating
You've captured me

I'm in misery without your company
Don't want to face reality
Wish you'd be clear, need answers
' cause your intentions ain't obvious to me

'Cause I'm caught up
And I'm drowning
Is you coming to the rescue?
Yeah, caught up
And I'm drowning
And your love's the only rescue

Don't wanna move too fast
Don't got the answers to all the questions you're asking, like
"When we gon' make it real?"
Ain't nothin' fake about it now, girl, how you feel?
Don't wanna lead you on
Did that by accident a couple times in the past
Don't wanna blink too slow
And miss another opportunity to let you know
I never said it, but I like you
Playing it cool, got you guessing what I might do
Chain of fools, got me worried 'bout a title
Or match the energy and you'll be sexin' on me
Call me scared of commitment if you want to
Or call me later, I ain't chasin', but I want you
I'm just tryna save you from me
Believe me, I know how niggas can be

'Cause I'm caught up
And I'm drowning
Is you coming to the rescue?
Yeah, caught up
And I'm drowning
And your love's the only rescue

Oh, stop
Will you ya listen
To my S.O.S. for a minute?
There a million sharks coming to me
Won't you pull me up? (Pull me up)

Oh, stop
Will you ya listen
To my S.O.S. for a minute?
There a million sharks coming to me
Won't you pull me up?

'Cause I'm caught up
And I'm drowning

Is you coming to the rescue?
Yeah, caught up
And I'm drowning
And your love's the only rescue
