Roses

VanJess

You got to be sensitive with roses
Fragile but open if you want this
Never been lost in someone this fast
Gimme love, all of me is yours to take

Long as you don't break the trust
'Cause I used dumb enough to rush the lust
We just starting out, this the time we lose our minds
Like we off of it, yeah, we in another plane, another space
In-our-own-world shit, baby
We got way too much to say
Before I give that okay, okay

You got to be sensitive with roses
Fragile but open if you want this
Never been lost in someone this fast
Gimme love, all of me is yours to take
Gimme love, all of me is yours to take

I been through it all
I don't trust in no one
You came in and changed it all
You changed it, you changed it
I need you to stay consistent
Come find me, my heart is aching
You could be the one I'm missing
I'm vacant, I'm here

You got to be sensitive with roses
Fragile but open if you want this
Never been lost in someone this fast
Gimme love, all of me is yours to take
Gimme love, all of me is yours to take
