

Force Majeure

Vansire

Life's a force majeure
When you feel unsure
Of the path you'll take
After what have lost
The motivation key

Feet in the sand
I have made mistakes
In the past four years
Staring at the sun
Trying to figure out

Pulling leaves and branches from the
Drought stricken trees
Spinning down the highway
Hoping that you still feel the same
