

Night Vision

Vansire

Baby, I gotta be honest
Like a full moon
The predictable surprises me
Wander through the night you're a
Night Vision
Wandering through the night of my indecision

I'm punching down, till I come back around
Sometimes the moon can't break through the clouds
I'm punching down, till I come back around
Some day we'll figure it out

Because I'm on the right track and I'm losing ground
Safe on the inside, far from the crowd
I never looked back and I wouldn't doubt
Your voice as a guide when the sun goes down
I'm on the right track and I'm losing ground
Safe on the inside, far from the crowd
I never looked back and I wouldn't doubt
Your voice as a guide when the sun goes down
Goes down
