Mary Don't Mind

VANT

Remember where you came from
It fucked you up and took its toll
Were your lullabies and melodies
Always meant for someone else's symphonies?

Been dreaming kinda lucid?
Don't know if you're awake?
Mary don't mind if you slip away

Been acting kinda stupid?
Wishing you were dead?
Mary don't mind if she gets to your head

You lost yourself deep in thought
Don't recognise that this is yours
Acknowledgement might set you free
But wash your hands and you'll go down in history

Been dreaming kinda lucid?
Don't know if you're awake?
Mary don't mind if you slip away

Been acting kinda stupid?
Wishing you were dead?
Mary don't mind if she gets to your head

When you crack a window
Don't forget to breathe
When you crack a window
When you crack a window

When you hit the ceiling
Don't commit to feeling whole

You know you're never gonna give up
Never gonna hiccup
Never gonna take it slow

Baby you're a liar
Sometimes even more than you know
You have

Been dreaming kinda lucid?
Don't know if you're awake?
Mary don't mind if you slip away

Been acting kinda stupid?
Wishing you were dead?
Mary don't mind if she gets to your head

Been dreaming of a future
Where nothing's left to save?
Mary don't mind if you slip away

Been acting on a rumour?
That you're already dead
Mary don't mind if she gets to your head

Mary don't mind if she gets to your head
Mary don't mind if she gets to your head
