

Take Another Penny

VANT

Take another penny, put in your pocket
You can save up and buy it if you want it
(Going nowhere)
Everyone's a winner
Baby you just got it
Take another penny and put it in your pocket
(Out on a whim)

Take another piece of my heart and break it
How am I gunna tell if the worlds worth saving?
If every single one is just a greedy mother fucker like you
But
You don't owe it to me
You don't owe anybody
But you

Take another penny
Put it your pocket
You can lose it all
Pretend that you still got it
(Throw it away)
Take another piece of my puzzle baby
Tear me apart by limb by limb by limb
(Ain't going nowhere)

Take another piece of my heart and break it
How am I gunna tell if the worlds worth saving
If every single one is just a greedy mother fucker like
You could be the one who just suddenly changes
My life
You were right all along
And now it's all gone
I wanna be loaded, bloated and gleaming
Just like you
And I won't owe it to me
I won't owe anybody
But you

Hand me the key
Hand me the key
I wanna let you in

Hand me the key
Hand me the key
I wanna let you in
