

Thunder

Vargas & Lagola

Every minute, every second of the hour
Got a feeling and I can't hide it
Keep it living, love or leave it but I know
There is a fire without a doubt

I feel thunder deep down in my beating heart
I feel thunder and I knew it right from the start

Pretty looking under city lights rumble like a river inside my body
Harder than a bullet hitting me but I am on a mission and I don
't mind

I feel thunder deep down in my beating heart
I feel thunder and I knew it right from the start

We live and we learn, live and we learn yeah
Haven't you heard? Haven't you heard?

Oh Sweet Ysabel
You're the perfect storm
When you come rollin' in
I know I belong

I feel thunder deep down in my beating heart
I'm talking 'bout thunder yeah baby that's what you are

It's on me (so they say)
On me (fire away)
It's on me (what a day)
Move on over rover, I'm on a ride

I feel thunder
I feel thunder
I feel thunder
I feel thunder
