

It happened again
You escaped my hand but you're in my head
I could have sworn that I could hear your voice
That I could feel your skin
But I knew better than to let you in

I knew better
I knew better
I knew better

Isn't this what you wanted all along?
Isn't it all?
This is what you wanted

To bring me down
To have me on my knees
Begging you for my life
For one more second
For anything

All I wanted was to feel your touch
Now I'm staring down the barrel of your gun

All I wanted was to feel your touch
Now I'm staring down the barrel of your gun

Don't stop shooting
Don't stop shooting
Don't stop shooting
Purify me

Don't stop shooting
Don't stop shooting
Don't stop shooting
Until I stop fucking moving

Bury me bloodied
With a bullet hole for every lie that you told

It happened again
You escaped my hand but you're in my head
I could have sworn that I could hear your voice (Hear your voice)

Victim of your beautiful torture
Disfigured
By the blood ordain me
And it's never enough

Disfigured
And it's never enough
Cleanse my body (My body)
But it's never enough

All you wanted was to watch me die

This is my damnation

Bury me bloodied with a bullet hole
Bury me bloodied with every lie
