

Day 3 : Revenge

Varials

Walk with me

Why did you come here
To this place of rest?
Did you not plan to die here?
Or was this all a test?

If fire walks with me
Then who the fuck walks with you?
I can feel the burn with my every step
But this path was made for two

I'm falling back in my ways
This all just feels like a daze
I'm trapped inside of your maze
This all just feels like a daze

A message in the shadow of a twin peaked mountain
A cursed room underneath
They laid down a foundation
We were never meant to seek

How is this happening again?
No blessing, only curse
How can I break the cycle of pain
When all I do is spill blood on the earth?

Everyone is decaying
Everyone is decaying
Buried beneath
Everyone I know is decaying
Buried beneath my feet
And when they come for me
I'll still grit my fucking teeth

I'm falling back in my ways
This all just feels like a daze
I'm trapped inside of your maze
This all just feels like a daze

If fire walks with me
Then who the fuck walks with you
I can feel the burn with my every step
But this path is made for two

How is this happening again?
No blessing, only a curse
How can I break the cycle of pain
When all I do is spill blood on the earth?
Before you pump your chest I want you to think
Before you cut your eyes, I will not blink
Forging the misery that will haunt you
Further into the fire I sink
Meet your last mistake

This is a problem
Severed in puzzling pieces broken

Now ya crawlin'
Hope that you'd bury me ruthlessly, but now you're fallen
Keep this in mind before you try
I will not blink
