

I Suffocate

Varials

What's the difference in too much
And not saying enough
When it all feels like suffocating?

It takes the air right from my lungs
But I could never bite my tongue
You watch me die

But if these walls could talk
Would it reveal a better ending
Or would I hate myself just the same
Or would it be worse
Than knowing nothing at all?

It all feels like I'm wasting time
It all feels like suffocating
Just like suffocating

But if these walls could talk
Would it reveal a better ending
Or would I hate myself just the same
Or would it be worse
Than knowing nothing at all?

With a lot of anger
And a pocket full of shells
You could leave a lot of weight
For them to burden
What were your intentions?
I couldn't tell you mine

Are you the lowest of the low
A filthy parasite
Bleed me out to death
Just so you can stay alive

But I'm running out of breath
And I fucking suffocate

I suffocate
I fucking suffocate
I suffocate
And it's still not enough
