Phantom Power

Varials

No light left
Nothing left to give
No life left
Darkness falls again
Darkness falls again
Rid me of my memories
Take away the pain

Rip it through me like a bullet wound
But you don't have the guts
To take a life with your bare hands
But the pain isn't enough

I will not (Find peace in the silence)
Alone again (The only reality I know)
I will not (Let this go without violence)
Until the fucking end

Why?
But the pain isn't enough
Why?

Take my life, I'm ready to die
I want to shine in the dark light
Let me flatline
And wake me up when there's no more time to buy
Silence, I still hear it drowning out the silence
Wasted, what a waste
I should have killed you long ago

Darkness falls again

I feel it coming for me
Like an omen
Floating between the walls
I thought I saw your ghost
What would you do if you were me?
(If you were me?)
Live a life of misery?
Or make them pay?
Reduced to nothing

Do it, end my fucking life
Bleeding through it
I need a resolution

Rip it through me like a bullet would
But you don't have the guts
To take a life with your bare hands
But the pain isn't enough

Why?
But the pain isn't enough
Why?

But the pain isn't enough

Take my life, I'm ready to die
I want to shine in the dark light
Let me flatline
And wake me up when there's no more time to buy
Silence, I still hear it drowning out the silence
Wasted, what a waste
I should have killed you long ago
