

Trapped

Varials

Breathing the toxins
Cause it's all surrounding
Infectiously plaguing my mind, no salvation
Walls closing in, bury me underneath
Nowhere to hide
No sunlight or chance of survival
Fate has been written
I can't escape this
The devil has a hold of you
And he has me too
Burning forever, eternally
Take me away from this reality
Locked away
Heavily sedated
Eyes are bloodshot red
Trapped with no way out
Beating myself senseless
Til I'm fucking dead
