

Picture Perfect

Varsity Fanclub

Sometime we share the same shadow.
Even when we're on different sides, of different rooms.
Love leads the way that we follow, even when the words don't rhyme, we sing the same tune.
Before I even change my mind you know already what I'm going to say or even what I'm trying to do.
You never wait until tomorrow, but never want today to end,
it always ends too soon.

A picture perfect love, is what I've always dreamed of (I always dream)
and I don't have to dream anymore.
No one nowhere could ever answer my prayer, they always seem to come back to me.
Now I found my someone somewhere, it's you and you're right there.
I can hardly believe it, you're living this prayer with me.

We're not joined at the seams, and we don't even have to be 'cause there's so much in between.
I know I sound a little crazy, and I really don't mean to be.
Baby you were made for me, ohh.

A picture perfect love, is what I've always dreamed of (I always dream)
and I don't have to dream anymore.
No one nowhere could ever answer my prayer, they always seem to come back to me.
Now I found my someone somewhere, it's you and you're right there.
I can hardly believe it, you're living this prayer with me.

We're not bound together, no, we could be free.
'Cause you and I know exactly where it is.
And it keeps getting better.
I bet on my life forever, what we're made of is a picture perfect love.

No one nowhere (no one) could ever answer my prayer (my prayer)
they always seem to come back to me.
(Always seem to come back) now I found my someone somewhere (somewhere) it's you and you're right there.
(And you're right there) I can hardly believe it (hardly believe) you're living this prayer (this prayer) with me.
No one nowhere could ever answer my prayer (answer my prayers)
they always seem to come back to me
(Always seem to come back [x2]) now I found my someone somewhere,
I found that someone, somewhere (it's you and you're right there) right there, right there, right there.

I can hardly believe, you're living this prayer with me
