

Battle

VaShawn Mitchell

Have you not heard
Do you know what He can do, hold your head up
Rest assured He will come through
He's never lost
With Him you win
Death could not hold Him
He broke out the grave

Get ready to testify
He's won another battle
Get ready to testify
He's won another battle

Put ya hands on it right there
Have you not heard
Do you know what He can do, hold your head up, yeah
Rest assured He will come through

With Him you win
Death could not hold Him
He broke out the grave
