

Destiny

VaShawn Mitchell

I'm walking into my destiny
I'm' walking in what He has for me
My past has been erased
I'm walking into my new place

The promise, the promise
The promise of God

If God said it, I believe it
It's mine, I receive it

The promise, the promise
The promise of God

I can see it
I can have it
It's mine
Walking into my destiny
