

Lost

VaShawn Mitchell

I will seek You until I find You;
For the rest of my life,
I'll keep running after You.
I will seek You until I find You;
For the rest of my life,
I'll keep running after You.

I'm lost without You;
I've finally found my place in You.
Drifted away, I'm here to stay
Safe in Your grace.
There's no turning back now;
Closer than I've ever been before.
There's tranquility, blessed security,
Safe in Your arms... so glad I've found You.

The search is over now
I'm right where I belong
I've found You, I've found You, I've found You...
