

Pieces

VASSY

You build me up in piece by piece

Searching through the silence
Hoping I could find a sign of life
On a road to nowhere
Never thought that I was gonna find

Somebody like you
That can put me first
That I never knew
It could feel like this
I was suffocated
Now I found a place to breathe again

I was lonely, lost and broken and incomplete
You put me back together piece by piece
You build me up in piece by piece

You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece
You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece
You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece
You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece

Never was a straight line till the end
Every bad decision
No, I don't regret them, 'cause they led

They led me to you
And now I see
That I never knew
How love should be
I was on the edge but
You turned off all the doubts inside my head

I was lonely, lost and broken and incomplete
You put me back together piece by piece
Every single tear, it made me stronger
Every single fear I had to conquer
But you put me back together piece by piece
You build me up in piece by piece

You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece
You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece
You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece
You build me up, build me up
Piece by piece

I was lonely, lost and broken and incomplete
You put me back together piece by piece
You build me up in piece by piece
