

Without You

VASSY

Sometimes, I think I see it happen
Sometimes, I feel like we might make it through At times, I think that you deserve much better
And at time I think I could try much harder than I do

Bad times, we had so many of them
Good times, we easily forget
I love you like crazy and hate you sometimes
I think you might hate me the same

Can you remember? When I found you I thought
I would always be around you
I was bound to you, bound to you, bound to you
Who knew what all this could amount to?
I thought I found you
I feel sick without you, without you, without you

Some night, I don't sleep, I feel stuck in a past life
I feel like I can give you the same love that I am getting from you
And at times, I feel like I really disappoint you
But no matter, I can't imagine this life without you

Bad times, we had so many of them
Good times, we easily forget
I love you like crazy and hate you sometimes
I think you might hate me the same

Can you remember? When I found you I thought
I would always be around you
I was bound to you, bound to you, bound to you
Who knew what all this could amount to?
I thought I found you
I feel sick without you, without you, without you

Who knew what all this could amount to?
I thought I found you
I feel sick without you, without you, without you
