There's a sun, there's a ground under my feet There is almost nothing in between Now I'm left like a flag atop a moon Precious one, you have abandoned me

Ooh so let me in
Because I'm out
I know that I am someone
No one said I was, no one said I was

Should I call you
Should I reach out
It feels like chasing shadows in the night
Yeah let me in
Because I'm out
I know that I am someone
No one said I was, no one said I was, no one said I was

Thrown away, have I been thrown away Thrown away, have I been thrown away

There's a sun, there's a ground under my feet There is almost nothing in between Now I'm left like a flag atop a moon Precious one, you have abandoned me

Ooh so let me in
Because I'm out
I know that I am someone
No one said I was, no said I was, no one said I was

Thrown away, have I been thrown away Thrown away, have I been thrown away
