

Tears

Vaughan Penn

Tears

I guess it stings a little bit
To see you fall in love again
I think it's time that I should quit
Hanging around, hanging around
But your bedroom eyes they draw me in While you keep my heart tied up in a sling
This bittersweet never ends cause I would do anything for you

You still pull the tears from my eyes
You make me cry
You still pull the tears from my eyes
And you're still the only one
You make me cry
(You're still the one for me)
Hey, is it your mind that's playing tricks on you again
While everybody is playing it cool

You're looking way too good now
I'd be a fool for you, again.
You still pull the tears from my eyes
You make me cry
You still pull the tears from my eyes
And you're still the only one
Even you could not take all this love with all this heartache
Heartache, heartache, with all this love
(You're still the one for me. You're still the one.)
You make me, you make me cry
You make me cry
And you're still the only one
Who really does it for me
You still pull the tears from my eyes
You make me cry
It's bittersweet it's bittersweet it's bittersweet
You still pull the tears from my eyes
Cause you're still the only one
