(We're getting closer)

Summertime

Drivin' you home from a party, said you need a ride
There was something in the way that you told me, "Goodnight"
Looked me in the eyes, made me wanna die
Makes me wanna dive in Everywhere that you're goin', everywhere that you've been
Lot of words unspoken that I said in my head
And I want you bad
I can't tell if it's just me or if you want me back

Is this the end, or start of a new story?
In this blissful purgatory
God, it's hell not knowing what you think

I hope that I'm not seein' things
And I hope that you're seein' 'em too
'Cause I'm gettin' closer, and you're gettin' closer
We're gettin' closer, I wanna be closer
If I'm livin' in a fantasy
I hope that you're livin' there too
'Cause I'm gettin' closer, and you're gettin' closer
We're gettin' closer, I wanna be closer to you

I swear you're drivin' every car that goes by
Not sayin' love but I've been fallin' in like
I think about you 25/8
Nicknames, heartbreak so high
I'm overthinkin' every message I sent (Message I sent)
I'm countin' seconds 'til I see you again (See you again)
I wonder if you're crushin' right back
Down bad, all that suspense

Is this the end, or start of a new story?
In this blissful purgatory
God, it's heaven when I'm missin' you

I hope that I'm not seein' things
And hope that you're seein' 'em too
'Cause I'm gettin' closer, and you're gettin' closer
We're gettin' closer, I wanna be closer
If I'm livin' in a fantasy
I hope that you're livin' there too
'Cause I'm gettin' closer, and you're gettin' closer
We're gettin' closer, I wanna be closer to you

(Is this the end, or start of a new story?

I wanna be closer to you
(God, it's heaven when I'm missin' you)
I wanna be closer to you

I hope that I'm not seein' things
