

everything, everywhere

vaultboy

Movie screen

Can't help but see you in every scene

Guy gets the girl, I wish that was me

The way that they held on to love

Love, I

I don't wanna miss you, God, I wanna kiss you

I don't even wanna think about it

Running circles 'round the reasons that you left

And I can't even seem to get around it

Ending scene

I know this is how it's supposed to be

And it's haunting me now

Tell me why

I'm stuck in a time loop while

The pendulum swings on by

Tell me why I

See you in everything, everywhere

All the time, you follow me like a shadow

From you, there's nowhere that I can hide

Life here without you, it's so shallow

And I wanna call you but I don't

Ever wanna be the reason for tears that you cry

Everything, everywhere all the time

Wish I could forget you but I won't

You're everything, everywhere

It's killing me

The end of us felt like the end of me

Can't even't escape you inside my dreams

Wish I could put this to rest

Yeah, I-I-I-I

I don't wanna miss you, God, I wanna kiss you

I don't even wanna breathe

No, I'm not the person that I shoulda been

Never gave you what you need

Oh, I ended things

Think I'll regret it eternally

And it's haunting me now

Tell me why

I'm stuck in a time loop while

The pendulum swings on by

Tell me why I

See you in everything, everywhere

All the time, you follow me like a shadow

From you, there's nowhere that I can hide

Life here without you, it's so shallow

And I wanna call you but I don't

Ever wanna be the reason for tears that you cry

Everything, everywhere all the time

Wish I could forget you but I won't

You're everything, everywhere

Oh, oh-oh-oh

You follow me like a shadow
Everything, everywhere
(Oh no, oh no, oh no, oh-oh)
Oh no, oh no, oh no, oh-oh-oh

You follow me like a shadow
