

feel anything

vaultboy

Stare in the mirror
I don't like myself
Feel like I'm not who I could be

Same drinks, same people
In the same hometown
They say they will, they never leave
I wanna leave
I wanna leave

Cause
I'm feelin cabin fever
Don't know what's stopping me
From diving in something deeper
Cause

I want a heartbreak
I want it to hurt
Call her back
And make everything worse
I'd rather feel
Anything with anyone
Anything

I wanna get lost
To find my way back
Fall in love
Even if it won't last
I'd rather feel
Anything with anyone
Anything
Than nothing

Seen the same billboards since 2006
Just driving past them drives me mad
Every first date ends with the same first kiss
This simulation's such a drag
Such a drag
It's getting bad

Cause
I'm feeling cabin fever
Don't know what's stopping me
From diving in something deeper
Cause

I want a heartbreak
I want it to hurt
Call her back
And make everything worse
I'd rather feel
Anything with anyone
Anything

I wanna get lost
To find my way back
Fall in love

Even if it won't last
I'd rather feel
Anything with anyone
Anything
Than nothing

I'd rather feel anything
With anyone
Anything
Than nothing

I'd rather feel anything
With anyone
Anything
Than nothing
