

take the hit

vaultboy

Ain't it great?
Broke down on the interstate
On the way to my last date
My now ex said, "Don't be late"
Ain't it great?
That it don't matter what I'm doing
I'll find something good to ruin
Think the universe is screwing with me

So I'll call my best friend up
She said I complain too much
Maybe I should just

Take the hit
And cut the shit
And maybe we fucked but not enough to sink the ship
Just take the hit
'Cause this is it
Way better days are on the way if you just roll with the punches and
Take the hit, oh
Take the hit, no

Ain't it great?
Waking up when it's way too late
You feel like shit and miss half the day
Friends all sleeping while I'm awake
Wide awake
Yeah, I spend way too much time singing (everything sucks)
Too much time thinking that (I got it rough)
Am I doing enough?
Maybe I should

Take the hit (yeah)
And cut the shit (no, oh)
And maybe we fucked but not enough to sink the ship (oh)
Just take the hit (just take the hit)
'Cause this is it (this is it)
Way better days are on the way if you just roll with the punches and
(and)
Take the hit, oh
Take the hit, no (no)
Just roll with the punches and
(Just take the hit)
Roll with the punches and

(You gotta) Roll with the punches and
