

Mend This Love

Vaults

Take me from the edge
Steal a step and lead me back from harm
Hold it in your hand
Crush it into crumbs like nothing's wrong

And tell me "right what you wanna know?
Take what you wanna hide
It's too late to mend this love"
And tell me "go where you wanna go
Break what you never had
It's too late to mend this love"

I was in the air
Carried like a burning old ember
Falling on the breeze
Scattered into dust on all four winds

And tell me "right what you wanna know?
Take what you wanna hide
It's too late to mend this love"
And tell me "go where you wanna go
Break what you never had
It's too late to mend this love"

Take me where the air is cold
My heart will rise above
Leave me in the frozen dawn
It's too late to mend this love

And tell me "right what you wanna know?
Take what you wanna hide
It's too late to mend this love"
And tell me "go where you wanna go
Break what you never had
It's too late to mend this love"

Take me where the air is cold
My heart will rise above
Leave me in the frozen dawn
It's too late to mend this love

And tell me "right what you wanna know?
Take what you wanna hide
It's too late to mend this love"
