

Orphan

Vaults

Floating to the fire like a [?] child
I step into the road as the veil it burns
I just wanted to believe in something beautiful
Hunger by the streetlight, I see no more
The apple of your eyes was a falling star
I just wanted to believe in something beautiful

I am just an orphan to your touch
Another one you do go
Still I am just an orphan to your touch

See the back of home as you cut your hair
Take a path of threads of a lullaby
I just wanted to believe in something beautiful

I wear it as a mask still I lose my breath
I just wanted to believe in something beautiful

I am just an orphan to your touch
Another one you do go
Still I am just an orphan to your touch

Thrown into the fire
Oh, don't leave me till it's over
Thrown into the fire
Oh, don't leave me till it's over

Thrown into the fire
Oh, don't leave me till it's over
Thrown into the fire
Oh, don't leave me till it's over

I am just an orphan to your touch
Another one you do go
Still I am just an orphan to your touch
