Vaundy

Hey
His fire picks are hailing down
Ain't been caught in night
But when we caught, then blow them down
Oh, yeah
You're ready now

It's gonna rot in the cells
It's gonna rot in your brain now
Na, na, na, na-na
Saw them talking about
It's gonna rock and then rain down
Na, na, na, na-na

Hey, now
We're gonna have to dance now
Who want? Na-na, na-na
Hey, now
Put out a hand to dance now
The world drags you down

Hey
I've drawn him about a thousand times
Let me call them "mana"
I'm broken and they don't fall down
Oh, you'll tell me inside

You got it rocking around
It's gonna rot in your brain now
Na, na, na, na-na-na-na
Started roaming around
It's gonna rock and then rain down
Na, na, na, na-na

Hey, now
We're gonna have to dance now
Who want? Na-na, na-na
Hey, now
Put out a hand to dance now
The world drags you down

Oh, baby
There's so many around
So it's been taxing
You're loving something new
Hold me badly to be buddy
You want me? Hey, rock with me
Give me that, na-na

Hey, now
We're gonna have to dance now
Who want? Na-na
Hey, now
Put out a hand to dance now
Who want? Na-na-na
Hey, now

Who want? Na-na
Hey, now
Put out a hand to dance now
