It's VEDO, baby, yeah

I put some diamonds on you just to make you wetter
I show you off 'cause, baby, this here ain't no secret
If you want it, then you got it 'cause my bread up
I pray for you, you pray for me, that make us better
You let me hit it in the morning when I wake up
In the morning
I love it when we argue, then we make up
Yeah, we make up
You know I'm with you, it's official, never let up
You make me better
You make me better
Girl, you make me better

So you get anything
Matching Givenchy and diamond tings
Oh, whoa, whoa
Imagine settling
Well, you could have more than you'll ever need
I Jimmy-Choo you, Bentley-coupe you, aye, aye
CEO moves, I could show you this way
If I'm a boss, you a boss too
Here's a little paper, start your business, that's a boss move

Let me put you in a position to level up
Put your pride to the side and bet on love
'Cause if I got it, then you got it, that's a fact
I'm 'a stock them bonds, get that paper, where you at?

I put some diamonds on you just to make you wetter
'Cause you deserve
I show you off 'cause, baby, this here ain't no secret
If you want it, then you got it 'cause my bread up
I pray for you, you pray for me, that make us better
You let me hit it in the morning when I wake up
In the morning

That's why you get them rounds like you do
That's why you get a song about you
