VEDO

It's Vedo, baby

I get it
You don't want forever, you just wanna feelin'
Take a shot and refill it
Don't want commitment but you wanna spend it (Spend it, woah)
Wish I would've knew before this much was in it (Damn)
How I'm gon' build with you if you don't keep it real with you?
You keep shuttin' down, baby girl, what's the deal with you?
Lately, I've been feelin' like you
Been lookin' for an exit, why you wanna stress it now?
I'm fuckin' with you but you ain't been so mutual
Why you wanna test him now?
Show me who you textin' now

Fuck that could've been
Where you been? Turnin' up a lot now with your friends
Baby, you're the reason I'm like this
Baby, you the
Where you been? Who you with? Who is him?
Yeah yeah, tell me, are you feelin' him?
Maybe you the reason I'm like this, could've been

Lately, you've been
Real resistant, you been distant, who been hittin' it?
And you know I'll never go through your phone
So I gotta trust what you said
This Casamigos and 42 got me all in my head
'Cause you not in my bed
You ain't givin' me what I've been puttin' out
You know this shit both way
That ain't really something we can talk about
Girl, you gotta show me
It's different with you
I know that you feel it because I been feelin' it too
You make it so difficult

Fuck that could've been
Where you bee? Turnin' up a lot now with your friends
Baby, you're the reason I'm like this
Baby, you the
Where you been? Who you with? Who is him?
Yeah yeah, tell me, are you feelin' him?
Maybe you the reason I'm like this, could've been
