VEDO

(Malik Ninety Five)

Yeah

(Troy Taylor, you the G.O.A.T.)

It's VEDO, baby

I can't picture you with nobody else
Said you'll never leave but I'm by myself
This 1942, think I need some help
Don't need to be alone

I've been sippin', I've been trippin', man, I can't fall asleep
If I said it, I don't mean it, swear these days, I don't think
Lately, I've been feelin' like everybody's in the mix
Gotta forgive me, you gotta forgive me
I swear that I've been prayin' as if it's the language I speak
Yeah, yeah, I know that you can hear, but do you understand me?
From all these demons, I've been fightin', feelin' like I'm Bruce Lee
You think I'm perfect 'cause you see me livin' on your TV

I cry in the rain just to hide my tears
If I'm in pain, then I disappear
I would trade the fame just to have you here
But then again is it really fair?

I can't picture you with nobody else
Said you'll never leave but I'm by myself
This 1942, think I need some help
Don't need to be alone
I'm standin' at the crossroads all by myself
Whispers in my ear sayin', "Nobody cares"
The devil's on my back, he's everywhere
I'm feelin' alone now, need you to come home now

I be actin' like I'm happy and I don't need my peace
I let people in, but it's some shit that I don't let them see
You not my brother if you try to take somethin' from me
I want revenge, but I pray 'cause I know one day you gon' see

I cry in the rain just to hide my tears
If I'm in pain, then I disappear
I would trade the fame just to have you here
But then again is it really fair?

I can't picture you with nobody else
Said you'll never leave but I'm by myself
This 1942, think I need some help
Don't need to be alone
I'm standin' at the crossroads all by myself
Whispers in my ear sayin', "Nobody cares"
The devil's on my back, he's everywhere
I'm feelin' alone now, need you to come home now

Time (Time)

Is the only thing that won't stop in life
But I need you back now

I can't picture you with nobody else (Oh)

Said you'll never leave but I'm by myself (Yeah)
This 1942, think I need some help
Don't need to be alone
I'm standin' at the crossroads all by myself
Whispers in my ear sayin', "Nobody cares"
The devil's on my back, he's everywhere
I'm feelin' alone now, need you to come home now
