

Hit Different (V)

VEDO

It's Vedo, baby

Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different when you know that it ain't right (Ain't right)
Hit different when you look me in my eyes
When you kiss it, you grip it
Hit different when I'm in it
Your body, I listen
Make sure I never missin' this shit, oh yeah
Hit it raw, yeah, yeah
Shit hit different

I was feeling you since the beggining even if you wasn't mine
I know it ain' feel right
But I feel like this the perfect time to take it there
Girl we can move at your pace
Can't wait to know how you taste
Hit different off that forty two
When I'm fucking you
It tastes different when I'm blessing you
You've been eating fruit
Falling in love with you each time you do it
It's a shame
But I can't blame myself
From fucking you 'cause you do it different

All that I know is
I'll stay inside you
Stroke in slow motion
Please don't deny me

Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different when you know that it ain't right (Ain't right)
Hit different when you look me in my eyes
When you kiss it, you grip it
Hit different when I'm in it
Your body, I listen
Make sure I never missin' this shit, yeah, yeah
Hit it raw, yeah
Shit hit different

I'm still waiting where you want it
Just hit me, girl keep it real
Just hit me when you want something different, babe
I bang it out
New shit different, second round
Let a nigga spoil it, record it
I want it, open up and turn around
Hit different off that forty two
When I'm fucking you
It tastes different when I'm blessing you

You've been eating fruit
You've got so much that I want more this time
And I'm waiting for you like a [?]
I'm waiting for you
Girl when you pull up
Your legs to the moon

All that I know is
I'll stay inside you
Stroke in slow motion (Please baby)
Please don't deny me

Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different, hit different
Hit different when you know that it ain't right (Know that it ain't right, n o)
Hit different when you look me in my eyes (Oh, only with you)
When you kiss it, you grip it
Hit different when I'm in it
Your body, I listen
Make sure I never missin' this shit, yeah (So good, oh yeah)
Hit it raw, yeah, yeah
Shit hit different
