

Only

VEDO

Ooh, oh, yeah-yeah
It's Vedo, baby

Here I go again, do too much
Always with my friends at the club
You tellin' me this, I just let you vent
'Cause I know how it is when you've had enough

Poor execution
With good intentions
Don't none of that matter
If Vedo don't listen
Baby, just tell me when you need something different
Whether you mind or your body, I'll pay attention

So whenever you get lonely call me only
I'll be your nigga and your side piece, love me only
I'll be the homie when you need one
That familiar shoulder you can lean on
If I fuck up I know you want leave
'Cause I'm your nigga and your side piece only

Here she go again runnin' her mouth
Talkin' to her friends about this house
When is she gon' learn that type of man is earned?
You only get the energy that you put out, yeah

Poor execution
With good intentions
Don't none of that matter
If she never listen
I'm tryna tell you that I need something different
If you're my lover and side piece ain't nothing missin', yeah

So whenever you get lonely call me only (Sheesh, call me only)
I'll be your nigga and your side piece love me only (Side piece
, love me, yeah)
I'll be the homie when you need one (When you need that you call me)
That familiar shoulder you can lean on (I'll be here)
If I fuck up I know you want leave
'Cause I'm your nigga and your side piece only (Your side piece
, yeah)
