

Play

VEDO

Didn't even made it to the bedroom
She wild as hell, boy, what I tell you?
She make it hard for me to leave, oh no
It don't really matter where we are
She break the rules, she wanna do it with the roof gone
She like a fuel, she like to poof when the juice gone
Since you love me, tell me why
'Cause tomorrow it might be a different guy

But the minute that you say my name, hey
I'm a victim, and I play your game
All that bullshit never been resolved
That's the reason why I never get involved

'Cause you play, 'cause you play
Just keep it honest, what you want right now? Oh yeah
Or it's too late, it's too late
You know there's plenty that could take your place
You made your bed, so you lay
You don't even call, don't think you should start right now
Keep that same energy, ooh
I see who you are, that's the reason I don't get involved
'Cause you play, 'cause you play

I know some secrets from your past dude
Some things that I've been meaning to ask you
I hope you feel it when I leave, oh no
'Cause you know the reason I went ghost
I make the grooves
I got the proof that you do wrong
You got a fuse, so I'ma poof
Sic your move on you
If you love me, tell me why
I still listen, even though I know you lie

But the minute that you say my name, hey
I'm a victim, and I play your game
All that bullshit never been resolved
That's the reason why I never get involved

'Cause you play, 'cause you play
Just keep it honest, what you want right now? oh yeah
Or it's too late, it's too late
You know there's plenty that could take your place
You made your bed, so you lay
You don't even call, don't think you should start right now
Keep that same energy, ooh
I see who you are, that's the reason I don't get involved
'Cause you play, 'cause you play

'Cause you play, 'cause you play
Just keep it honest, what you want right now? oh yeah
Or it's too late, it's too late
You know there's plenty that could take your place
