

Reminiscing

VEDO

Oh no, oh noo
Ohh yeah
It's Vedo baby

Remember when I used to come through
And take you down to Chris Brown, take you down yeah
We rock the boat to Aaliyah
Whisper in ya hear girl I need ya
And put ya favorite song on repeat yeah
Fall asleep yeah
And I used to beat it up to that old juvenile
Slow-motion girl I know you know
Back it up to that old 2000 girl
Ride it like a rodeo
Then we switch it up and made love
I'm Omarion know the speaker sayin' more
Remember when I used to hit ya up
When you get home and sing to you all night long

Do you remember?
I sent you that voicemail
Playing your favorite song in the background, background yeah
Tell me what you want
I'ma leave it up to you
Know that it's all for you

I can't get you out my head
Give you all my time
I want your love again
I know that we were young
But what I felt was real
I want you to know
That girl I've been reminiscing about the way that we kissed
Can't stop thinking 'bout you

Used to steal my brother's CDs
Slow jams gets you wet like Fiji
You know the ones wit' the scratches on it
Hopin' it wouldn't skip, skip, skip
While I grip your hips
'Cause I don't wanna fuck up the moment
Tell me you remember 'cause I do
You know when I there, you wanna came up
We did some shit that we weren't 'posed to do baby
And I can't [?] my theme song
[?] in my bedroom
And no one's invited but you
Oh yeah
I almost got you pregnant
And pretty Ricky came on
And you made it juicy for me

Do you remember?
Tell me what you want
I'ma leave it up to you (oh, oh)

Know that it's all for you

I can't get you out my head

Give you all my time

I want your love again

I know that we were young

But what I felt was real

I want you to know

That girl I've been reminiscing about the way that we kissed (oh)

Can't stop thinking 'bout you

Only thing that's on my mind

When we used to fight

Gave my all to you

In exchange for your love

Take me back when it was us

So inseparable

It was honest and pure

Nothing compares to you

I can't get you out my head

Give you all my time

I want your love again

I know that we were young

But what I felt was real

I want you to know

That girl I've been reminiscing about the way that we kissed
