

Yesterday

VEDO

So stuck on yesterday
Still stuck in your old ways
I've changed, I'm not the same
So done with playing games
You're so stuck on yesterday
There's nothing more to say
I hate to feel this way
This ain't how love should be
(It's VEDO, baby)

Sitting here thinking like what I do wrong?
I wanna know
Losing my grip and I'm tryna hold on
I been so lost
We barely talk
What does love cost?
'Cause we
Had this conversation, babe
I'm too tired to chase it, babe
I'm running out of patience lately
I don't know why
Tired of the lies bringing tears down my eyes
I tried to love you better but

You're so stuck on yesterday
Still stuck in your old ways
I've changed, I'm not the same
So done with playing games
You're so stuck on yesterday
There's nothing more to say
I hate to feel this way
This ain't how love should be

Tryna figure out what's important this time
I don't know
Is there another lover involved in your life
Just let me know
If so, let me go and I'll walk out the door
You gave me half, I gave you all of me
I had a heart, you took it out of me
Got no more room for your apology
Rather you leave than take a part of me
I ain't gon' fake it
You were my favorite
Do me a favor
Don't call me later

You're so stuck on yesterday
Still stuck in old ways
I've changed, I'm not the same
So done with playing games
You're so stuck on yesterday
There's nothing more to say
I hate to feel this way
This ain't how love should be

You're so stuck on yesterday

Still stuck in old ways
I've changed, I'm not the same
So done with playing games
You're so stuck on yesterday
There's nothing more to say
I hate to feel this way
This ain't how love should be
