

Wavery

Vein

You find me
Providing Consistent
Surprising
Retracing steps
Back into birth
Before I found it
Before I found the fawn
Dead
Between the wall
And bed

I looked
And I touched
I bit the breeze from east to west
I think I've had enough (If I push in my face)
Of this (I can feel your embrace)
(Connecting)
Just like the fawn
(Making ashes of pain)
Limping (Turning seconds to days)
(Collecting)

The effigy in a blaze
We're both wearing the name
Wavery
If I breathe and you break
Smolder into the brain
Keep me safe

Now I lose your name

Come find me
Revive me
Come find me

At this speed we could go forever
These physics yet unknown
The cellar door is tethered
To
The
Bone
Explore

Come find me
Bring yourself back to birth
Shed the blood of the in-between
In this womb of words

(It'll always be just fine)
