Dead by Dawn

Vektor

Safe until the morning
Then it comes: The all-sky Sun
Reaching into the depths of our souls

over here, run inside
Over here, come and hide
Don't go out in that light
Stay with me into the night

Embered Earth lines the path of desire
Light will come rushing in as fire

Safe until the morning
Then it comes: The all-sky Sun
Burning all
The right and the wrong

Embered Earth lines the path of desire
Light will come rushing in as fire
Shadows grow bold and stark in ire
Grasping for dying flames, the light conspires

Hemispheres of dark and light
Contrasting points of sight
The truth lies on the the dividing plane
Always moving, never the same
A flipping coin becomes a sphere
When it lands its fate is clear
To live or die
A reflection in my eye

Thoughts turn to fear and dread
Is there no one I can trust?
Cast onto this world of shame
I will turn to dust

Dead by dawn, from the all-sky Sun
Dead by dawn, the race is on

Gamma rays and exquisite pain
Are what awaits me now
Seeking darkness fading now
I must survive somehow

Dead by dawn, from the all-sky Sun
Dead by dawn, the race is on

Bringer of light does not forgive
It only erases the truth we hold within Ourselves
To out bleeding core it delves

Dead by dawn, from the all-sky Sun
Dead by dawn, the race is on
