

My Destiny

Velvet

Life is coming clear
Everytime your near me
Wishing you were here
By my side I will
Read for you
Tonight
Trying to define
Knowing you were mine now
Ever know so how
I am lost in you
This was meant to be
My destiny
Has been touched by your heart
My destiny
Never tear us apart
Love is a mural that shines through your eyes
I fi-nal-ly realized
My destiny
So go in my face
Then you would embrace me
There were times I chased
Every dream I've been Running far to see
My destiny
Has been touched by your heart
My destiny
Never tear us apart

Love is a mural that shines through your eyes
I fi-nal-ly realized
My destiny
I will trust in you
Like you trust in me
I know that we're meant to be
My destiny (My destiny...)
Has been touched by your heart
My destiny (My destiny...)
Never tear us apart
Love is a mural that shines through your eyes
I fi-nal-ly realized (Realized...)
My destiny (My destiny...)
Has been touched by your heart
My destiny (Ooooh...)
Never tear us apart
Love is a mural that shines through your eyes
I fi-nal-ly realized
My destiny
