

POV

venbee

What's the point of me and you?
You can't see my point of view
I've got problems, so have you
You won't let me say them
So out of rhythm, got me blue
You can't see my point of view
What if you never knew
My heart was breaking?

You're taking the piss
My friends will back me on this
'Cause I told them the sitch
You're working four, five, six in the morning
And I'm calling you drunk
Now I'm taking the piss
Sometimes I'm a bitch

Would you say you need me
If I say I'm going?
We've been through seasons
But give me a moment to say
This ain't equal
Two sides to a story
But mine you're ignoring
And it's getting me worried

What's the point of me and you?
You can't see my point of view
I've got problems, so have you
You won't let me say them
So out of rhythm, got me blue
You can't see my point of view
What if you never knew
My heart was breaking?

Um, I feel like this needs to speed up a bit

What if you never knew my heart was breaking?

POV

What happened to us?
I just want love
Do you give a fuck?
Probably not
Looking like ABC
It used to be easy
Now you've gotten cold
And I'm getting heated
Don't want you leaving

But would you say you need me
If I say I'm going?
We've been through seasons
But give me a moment to say
This ain't equal
Two sides to a story

But mine you're ignoring
And it's getting me worried

What's the point of me and you?
You can't see my point of view
So out of rhythm, got me blue
You can't see my point of view
What if you never knew
My heart was breaking?

What's the point of me and you?
