

Serenity

Vended

I can never keep up the pressure
I know it'll only get worse
I'm numb to all of the pleasures
I'm dying in reverse
I'm getting sick, sick, picking up pieces you missed
I'm tired of the bitching, complaining and shit
If I have to hear it again I might just loose it

Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become
Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become

I'm getting sick of the nights where I can't see a reason to go out and fight
Every minute is manic, I panic and frantically hide in my antics

I'm not a saint but I'm less of a sinner
I'm not tainted and I'm not a quitter
I'm not a saint but I'm less of a sinner
I'm not tainted and I'm not a quitter

Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become
Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become

This shell that I've become
This shell that I've become
This shell that I've become
This shell that I've become

Once again, I don't wanna hear it
It's not fair how annoyed I get
I admit, I want silence
I don't wanna loose my head again
If I do I'll never hear the fucking end of it
If there's a side to human that I'm not seeing, I hope it finds me
I just wanna feel alive again
Can you help me feel alive again

(Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become")

Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become
Call my name and I will say "just leave me all alone"
Someday I will break out of this shell that I've become

Just leave me all alone
This is the shell I've become
Just leave me the fuck alone
This is the shell I've become

Wasting away again
Waiting for my end
Wasting away again

Waiting for my end
Leave me in serenity
No one else but me
Leave me in serenity
No one else but me
