

A Bigger Man

Venerea

Thank you, Mr. Hubbard
You've taught me how to act
I had no ambitions and all confidence I lacked
Now I'm the focus and the goal in my whole plan
You've shown the way for me to be a bigger man

I was no believer
Never sought a higher power
Thought I was happy to be living hour to hour
Now I can't help but feel like I've been born again
You're showing me the way to be a bigger man

Now it feels just like I have been dreaming all my life
Don't even recognize my children and my wife
But my potential now I fully comprehend
You are the way for me to be a bigger man
You are the way for me to be a bigger man

A bigger man is what I am
